

Thank you for your interest in excerpting material published by Tom Doherty Associates.

Please note:

- The turnaround time for a permission request can be 6-8 weeks.
- If you are interested in using images, such as artwork or photographs, contained within the work please check a hard copy of the book before sending a request. Oftentimes publishers do not hold the rights to these images and a credit line appears next to the image or in the acknowledgment section of the book.

In order to facilitate the permission process, please provide the following information in your request and fax permission requests to: Permissions Department at 212 677-7456. Please use additional pages, if necessary.

About the Tom Doherty Associates (TDA) Publication
Name of the TDA publication from which you are taking material
Author of the TDA publication
ISBN of the TDA publication
Page number(s), chapter number(s), or any way to identify where the material appears in the TDA publication
If you are editing the material, enclose a sample of the material as you intend it to appear within your product
About Your Product
If the nature of your product is non-print, briefly explain.
Working title of your product
Author(s) of your product
Name of the publishing company which will publish the work (We are only able to process requests for printed works once they have been acquired by a publisher.)
Markets and territories intended for distribution of your product
Total print run of your product
Date of intended publication of your product	