Hisssssssssssssssss goes the sound of the train.
SNakes On A Train Maze

Can these two snakes make it to the train before it leaves the station? Help them find the way!
DRAW YOUR OWN SNAKE!

Some snakes are pink, some snakes are green, and some snakes even wear glasses.

Draw your own snake here.
WHAT DOES A SNAKE SAY?

Hissssssssssss goes the sound of the train. Ssssssssssssssh goes the sound of the train.

What other words make the ssssssssssss sound? Add to the list below.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
CREATE YOUR OWN SNAKE!

With an adult’s help, make your own snake cutting along the dotted line.