Host a Surviving the Wild event!

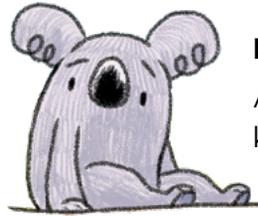

Refreshments

Set up healthy (yet delicious) snacks that are Star and Rainbow approved using recyclable utensils and plates.

Star's Suggestions

Fresh sliced fruit like bananas, strawberries, and pineapple

Rainbow's Suggestions

A veggie platter with kid-favorite dips

Event Suggestions

Your animal friends are here to help set up this eco-friendly event for kids!

Decorations

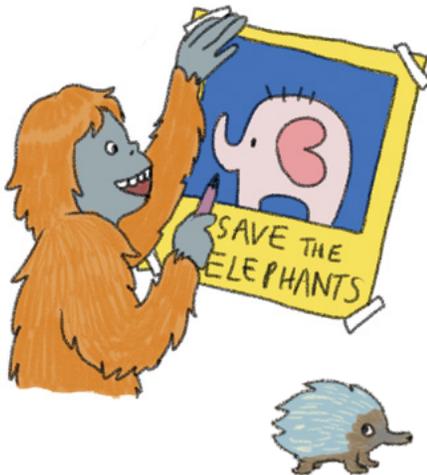

Re-create the wild by cutting out tropical leaves and helping the kids hang them on brown twine, like vines.

Guest List

Encourage the kids in attendance to bring their very own stuffed animal to take part in the fun.

Activity

Use the following activities to start a discussion on which animals kids want to protect and what actions they can take to help.

Make copies of the activities in this kit and provide markers and crayons for the kids to use.

Did you know?

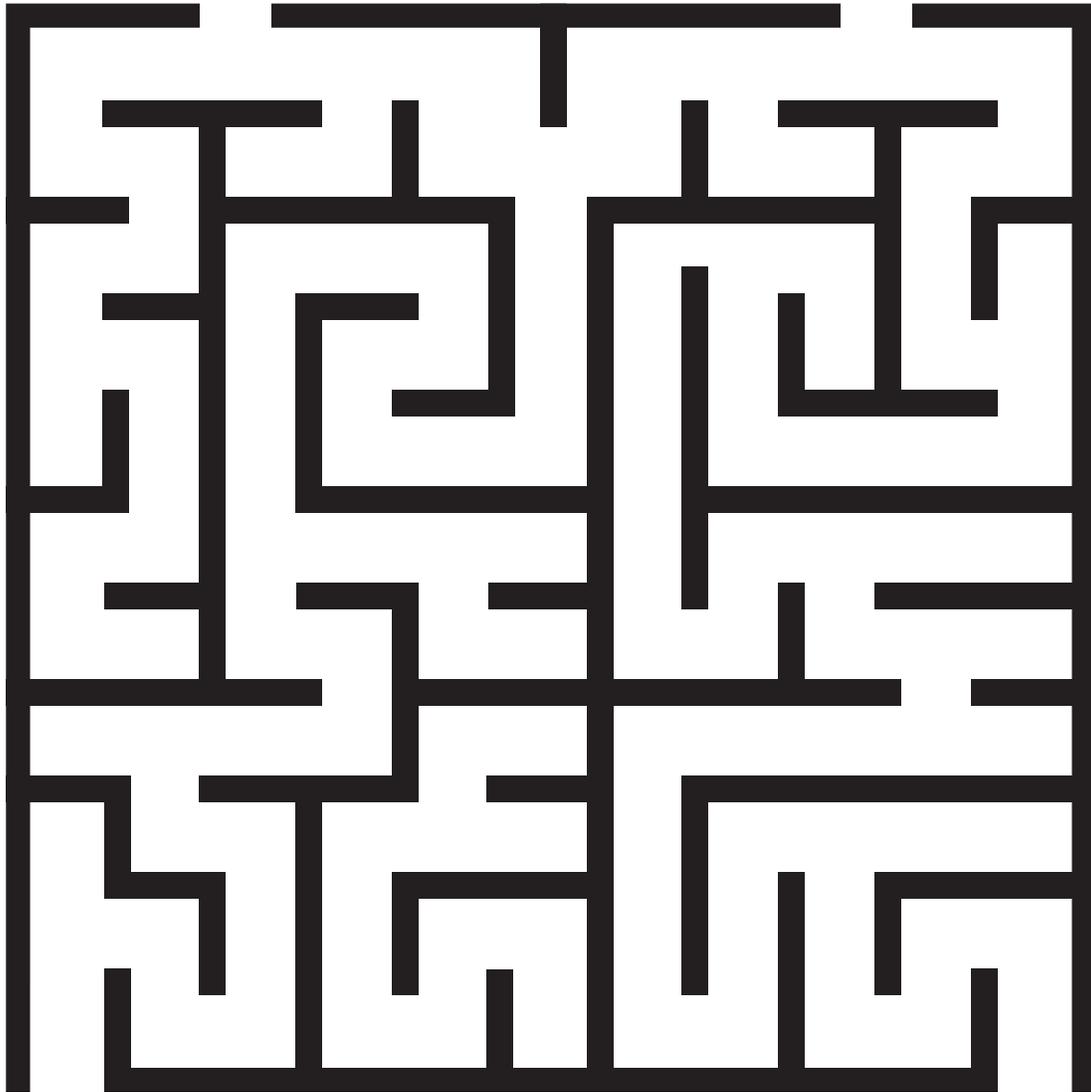

Star's and Rainbow's stories are inspired by true events.

Deforestation happens when trees are cut down in forests.

Climate change makes bushfires occur more often.

Reunite Star and Rainbow with their mothers!

Uh-oh, your animal friends got lost in the wild again.
Can you help each of them find their family?
